THE WAR CRY

W H A T a mighty power for good our Band has been in the past! All around the world they have helped our own, our way March but I never muse on the work already done. It is too much for one man to take in. It is too much for the human soul! Let us learn as quickly as we can to appreciate its gifts to the world, its as far as possible, to find its proper place in the program of the Church, and guide and control it so that we may make the best possible use of it in saving the world.

Who will help me in this task? Our Bandmen play their instruments for the love of God and man. Our musical forces ought to shake the world. It shall be done. Who will help me to bring it to pass? My hope is largely in the Bandmaster. He is the man for me. When you see him to come right over to my side, and give me his heart if he has not done so already. He is the key of the matter. His influence ought to carry all before it. It will do, if it is given. Our Bandmaster should see clearly what he wants to accomplish, understand how to bring it to pass, and be determined to do it.

I ask that all my Bandmasters and their Bandmen should be good, godly men. I ask that you will have a sense of the matter. I ask that you see that the work of the Band is to be soul-saving. You expect that I should be a true, holy, God-fearing man, don't you? I am, and I will. But I am a gossiping, gigling, flirtin', conceited man for a General. If you think I was such you would be ashamed to play your music when I came among you. I am here to do work and I am here much, then, for me to expect the same things from you and conduct you.

I ask that my Bandmasters and Bandmen should, as far as their ability, do their work. They are men of ability and have a soul-saving work.
